Evening with Hon. Patrick Brown

DECEMBER 02

Hon. Patrick Brown who is running for Ontario PC leadership, is well known among the Tamil Canadian community for his consistent open voice for Human Rights. He needs and deserves our support.

In 2009, when thousands of Eelam Tamils were killed and many thousands confined in concentration camps, Patrick tried to visit the camps to ensure the safety of the Tamils but the Sri Lankan government denied visas.

He made several efforts including visiting Geneva for speeches and advocacy, hosting the 'UK Channel 4 - Sri Lanka's Killing Field' documentary at parliament, made several media interviews, and helping to organize and take part in several conferences in order to highlight Tamil Genocide by Sri Lanka. He has been and continues to be an advocate for accountability and justice for victims of war crimes and crimes against humanity. His contributions to justice is greatly appreciated among the tamil diaspora
